Small Cotton Ball

After the great success we had with "Sburratino" here is another product made only with fresh Italian milk that will literally surprise those who try it! It can be eaten alone or combined with both savoury and sweet ingredients and dishes. It is not easy to explain its texture and flavour, we can only say that it stands somewhere between Robiola and Ricotta and that it is really very good and tasty.

We cannot give you much advice on how to use this fresh cheese because it goes well with anything and can be used from starter to dessert.
